

Remuneration Policy

1. PREAMBLE

- A. The remuneration policy provides a framework for remuneration paid to the members of the Board of Directors ("Board") and for Key Managerial Personnel ("KMP") and the Management Personnel ("MP") of the Company (collectively referred to as "Executives"). The expression KMP shall have the same meaning as defined under the Companies Act, 2013. "Management Personnel" means personnel of the company excluding Board of Directors comprising such levels of managerial personnel as may be decided from time to time. This Policy also provides a framework for identification of persons who are qualified to become directors and who may be appointed as senior management for recommendation of their appointment to the board. "Senior Management" means personnel of the company who are members of its core management team excluding Board of Directors comprising all members of management one level below the executive directors, including the functional heads.
- B. This Policy has been framed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors and based on its recommendation, approved by the board of directors. The policy may be reviewed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors.

2. AIMS & OBJECTIVES

The aims and objectives of this remuneration policy may be summarized as follows:

- A. The remuneration policy aims to enable the company to attract, retain and motivate high quality members for the Board and executives.
- B. The remuneration policy seeks to enable the company to provide a well-balanced and performance-related compensation package, taking into account shareholder interests, industry practices and relevant Indian corporate regulations.
- C. The remuneration policy will ensure that the interests of Executives are aligned with the business strategy and risk tolerance, objectives, values and long-term interests of the company and will be consistent with the "pay-for-performance" principle.

- D. The remuneration policy will ensure that remuneration to Executives involves a balance between fixed pay and incentive (by way of increment/bonus/promotion/any other form) reflecting short and long-term performance objectives appropriate to the working of the company and its goals.
- E. The remuneration policy will ensure that remunerations, perks to Executives are always subject to the business performance of the company.

3. PRINCIPLES OF REMUNERATION

- a. Support for Objectives: Remuneration and reward frameworks and decisions shall be developed in a manner that is consistent with, supports and reinforces the achievement of the Company's objectives.
- b. Transparency: The process of remuneration management shall be transparent, conducted in good faith and in accordance with appropriate levels of confidentiality.
- c. Internal equity: The Company shall remunerate the Executives in terms of their roles and responsibilities within the organisation. Positions shall be formally evaluated to determine their relative weight in relation to other positions within the Company.
- d. External equity: The Company strives to pay an equitable remuneration, capable of attracting and retaining high quality personnel. Therefore the Company will remain logically mindful of the ongoing need to attract and retain high quality people, and the influence of external remuneration pressures.
- e. Flexibility: Remuneration and reward offerings shall be sufficiently flexible to meet both the needs of individuals and those of the Company whilst complying with relevant tax and other legislation.
- f. Performance-Driven Remuneration: The Company shall entrench a culture of performance driven remuneration, whether as part of increment or separately and in such form as may be considered appropriate.
- g. Affordability and Sustainability: The Company shall ensure that remuneration is affordable on a sustainable basis.

4. REMUNERATION TO NON EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Non Executive directors may be paid remuneration by way of fee and reimbursement of expenses for participation in the Board and other meetings and commission and/or such other payments, if any, as may be permitted by the law applicable to such payments. Such payments shall be subject to the provisions of Companies Act, 2013.

5. COMPENSATION STRUCTURE
